RHODE ISLAND DEMS TO HOLD STATE COMMITTEE MEETING OCT. 15 Committee Membership Recommendations & DNC Committeeman Election to be Decided

WARWICK, R.I. – Rhode Island Democratic Party Chair Joseph M. McNamara announced Friday that the state party will be holding an organizational meeting with its State Committee on Sunday, October 15 at 6 p.m. at the Cranston Portuguese Club, 20 2nd Avenue, Cranston. Members of that committee were also mailed a copy of notice of that meeting.

Members were invited to sign up for one (or more) of its seven standing committees: Finance, Platform/issues, Public Relations, Diversity, Technology/Technological Support, Campaign Activities, Education/Training, and Long-Range Planning, and will be officially named to those committees at that time. Additionally, with the passing of Democratic National Committeeman Frank J. Montanaro in late August, a new committeeman will be named: interested individuals may submit a letter of interest to the Chair, c/o of the R.I. Democratic Party, 200 Metro Center Blvd., Ste. 2, Warwick, R.I. 02886.
