R.I. DEMOCRATS TO LAUNCH WORKSHOPS ON HOW TO BECOME A DELEGATE TO 2016 DEMOCRATIC NATIONAL CONVENTION

Statewide Outreach to begin September 9 with Free Regional Workshops

WARWICK – If you are a Rhode Island voter, registered (or registering) as a Democrat or Unaffiliated, looking to vote in the 2016 Democratic Presidential Primary, and seeking election as a delegate to the Democratic National Convention next year, we can help.

Chair Joseph M. McNamara announced today that starting Wednesday, September 9, the Rhode Island Democratic Party will host five regional workshops for Rhode Islanders interested in becoming a delegate to that Convention. (Residents are invited to attend any of the workshops.) Representatives of the Rhode Island Secretary of State's Office will be in attendance to address questions about voting procedures

The dates, times and locations are as follows:

Wednesday, September 9 at 6 p.m.	Rogers Free Library, 525 Hope Street, Bristol
Thursday, September 10 at 6 p.m.	Peace Dale Library Meeting Room, 1057 Kingstown Road, Wakefield
Wednesday, September 16 at 6:30 p.m.	Warwick Democratic City Committee, Knights of Columbus Hall, Sandy Lane, Warwick
Thursday, September 17 at 6 p.m.	Woonsocket Public Library, 303 Clinton Street, Woonsocket
Wednesday, October 7 at 6 p.m.	Meeting Street School, 1000 Eddy Street, Providence

For more information, contact the Rhode Island Democratic Party at ridemocrats@gmail.com or 401.272.3367. If hearing impaired and require a signer, please contact us 48 hours prior to workshop.
